Resume:

Laurel, DE- Delaware State Police detectives have arrested a 35 year old Berlin, Maryland woman in connection with allegedly raping a 14 year old male.

On Wednesday February 6, 2013, detectives at Troop 4 in Georgetown began a rape investigation after a 14 year old boy disclosed to a family member that he had a sexual relationship with Katheryn L. Carmean, 35 of Berlin, Maryland. The incidents reportedly occurred over a ten month period as the victim would periodically stay at Katheryn Carmean's residence located on Mt. Zion Road near Laurel. Carmean, who recently moved to Maryland, was an acquaintance of the victim through a friendship with her son.

Detectives conducted a comprehensive and thorough investigation into the complaint and obtained a warrant for Carmean's arrest. She was picked up yesterday at her place of employment in Seaford and brought back to Troop 4 where she was charged with the above listed offenses. She was arraigned at JP2 and committed to DJBWCI on $57,000.00 secured bond.

Because of the sensitivity of this case, and in consideration of the victim, only limited information will be released.
